SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...that they need to vindicate their concept of manhood, because they are lacking in so many respects. If I have to stand on somebody else's shoulders to feel tall, I am small indeed. If I have to take advantage of and harm those who are helpless, then I am weak indeed. And when a man can be so contemptuous and so lacking in concern and compassion for such a large percentage of the population, then what I feel cannot be described by the term contempt, because that word is a gross understatement.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Call the question.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Schimek calls the question. Do I see five hands? I do. Question before the body is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 3 nays to cease debate.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Debate ceases. Senator Schimek, you're recognized to close.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, thank you, Mr. President. Members of the body, I'd like to give about my first minute or two to Senator Hilgert.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Hilgert.

SENATOR HILGERT: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Members, the first session I was down here we had a bill that had to deal with having a gynecologist be a primary care physician. And I went home and asked my wife about it, and she says, well absolutely. Well, then I decided to support the bill; I listened to the woman. We're going to be leaving, or three of our colleagues will be leaving after this session, more women. I think this is our last opportunity to listen to them. I've read this bill and I do want to make a quick comment on this. This has been opposed by some organizations in the state regarding the Right to Life issue, I've read this word by word. There's 30 appointments from a Governor who's pro-life, we even have a
